Alternatively, Latita Africa may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to Latita Africa's business, then the new owners may use personal information in the same way as set out in this policy.

11. Transborder transfers

- 11.1. Latita Africa operates across various African jurisdictions and we provide cross jurisdictional financial advice and related services to our clients.
- 11.2. The multi-national nature of our business means that your personal information may be transferred across national boundaries, including, potentially, to countries that do not have similar data protection laws to those where the personal information was collected.
- 11.3. If we transfer your personal information across national boundaries, we will make those transfers in compliance with applicable data protection laws.

12. Access to, correction and deletion of personal information

- 12.1. Under certain circumstances, you may have some or all of the rights set out below under the data protection laws that may be applicable in relation to your personal information which Latita Africa holds.
 - 12.1.1. Request access to personal information (commonly known as a "Data Subject access request"), including the right to receive a copy of the personal information.
 - 12.1.2. Request correction of any incomplete or inaccurate personal information.
 - 12.1.3. Request erasure of personal information if Latita Africa is not authorised to process the personal information.
 - 12.1.4. Object to processing of personal information, if Latita Africa is relying on its legitimate interest (or those of a third party) to process the personal information, but as a result of your particular situation such processing impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms.
 - 12.1.5. Request restriction of processing of personal information whilst a complaint is being investigated.

- 12.1.6. Withdraw consent at any time if Latita Africa is relying on consent to process personal information. If you withdraw your consent, Latita Africa may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. This will be considered on a case-by case basis.

13. Electronic and website links

- 13.1. Latita Africa's website, newsletters and/or events marketing pages may include links to third party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share your personal information.
- 13.2. Latita Africa does not control these third party websites and is not responsible for their privacy policies. When you leave Latita Africa's website, we encourage you to read all applicable privacy policies.

14. Complaints

- 14.1. If you are not satisfied with Latita Africa's use of your personal information or our response to any request by you to exercise your rights, or if you think that we have breached any relevant data protection laws, you are encouraged to contact our Chief Information Officer at the contact details set out above or the relevant information officer set out in the applicable country specific schedule to this policy, if applicable. Should you remain dissatisfied, then you have the right to complain to the authority that supervises our processing of your personal information.

15. Latest Version

- 15.1. Latita Africa keeps this policy under regular review and may amend this policy from time to time.
- 15.2. Any such amendment will come into effect when published on Latita Africa website and become part of any agreement that you have with any member of Latita Africa.
- 15.3. You must ensure that you obtain the latest version of this policy before any action is taken based hereon. It is your responsibility to check Latita Africa's website often.
